

Maeve and Max have MMA

Maeve and Max have
MMA

TEMPLE STREET CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Authors: Jill Moore & Jenny McNulty
Illustrator: Fintan Taite
Design: Oonagh Young, Design HQ

With thanks to those who donate so generously to the Metabolic Unit

This is Maeve and Max.
They have MMA just like you.

It's Monday morning
and time for school.

Maeve starts the day
with her first special MMA drink.

Max is very sleepy in the mornings
and finds it hard to wake up.

Maeve helps her mum make her MMA drink
in a special beaker.

She gets a sticker
when she is finished.

Max forgets to take his drink which makes him tired and late for school.

Don't miss the bus Max!

RING RING RING RING

Maeve gets to school early and when the bell rings it's time for her second MMA drink.

Max is so tired he sleeps through lunchbreak!

After school Maeve goes to dance class.
She's a champion dancer !

Max is the goalkeeper for the school football team.
He lets in a lot of goals!

It's Wednesday. Maeve and Max meet at the MMA Clinic in Temple Street Hospital.

Maeve gives Max a star for his chart and he never forgets to take his MMA drink again. Now he has loads of energy when he wakes up in the morning.

And he's a super goalkeeper!

Metabolic.ie
National Centre for Inherited Metabolic Disorders

Temple Street
CHILDREN'S UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL